Selling Whisky to Indians.

U. S. Marshall Humphrey came in Wednesday morning with three prisoners arrested for selling whisky to Indians. They will be taken to Carson Thursday to answer before the U. S. Grand Jury which meets in Carson City in February. The prisoners consist of Barney Carrigan, arrested in Winnemucca two weeks ago by Sheriff Hadley, who caught him in the act of furnishing whisky to two Piute bucks; Joseph Shopph, a German dive keeper, who was also arrested in Winnemucca for a like offense, and an Elko man, whose career as a dispenser of ardent spirits to the noble red man is thus cut short.—Journal.

ALL SORTS.

A jury has not yet been secured in the Parsons trial, which began yesterday.

Gross receipts of the World's Fair postoffice amounted to $4,388, and the expenditures were $29,614.

Frank Blethen left last evening to join his parents in Maine, and Tracy Chedie left on a still hunt for something to do.

Richard Golden in Jed Prouty and Barlow Bros. Minstrels are the next theatrical attractions; Jan. 2nd and 19th, respectively.

To get the best trade in buying furniture go to Geo. W. Kitzmeyer. He has undoubtedly established a reputation for fair dealing in his thirty years in business in Carson.

All Chinese laborers in the United States must register before a Collector of Internal Revenue before May 3d next, or else be subject to deportation.

The Chicago window glass trust has been shattered to pieces. The scheme was too transparent to be successful.—Silver State.

The above gives us a pane.

For holiday presents nothing is better than a useful piece of furniture or a nice warm mattress. At Kitzmeyer's Store you can get them at the very lowest prices.

Subject of Mrs. Maynard's lecture tonight, Friday, in Episcopal Sunday School room, is "Socialism" it being the first of a series of lectures on the "Proposed Solution" of the Labor Problem. Mr. Maynard will read from James Whitcomb Riley.

The Courier says there is no minister of the gospel in Belmont. Preachers, like everybody else, cannot live on wind alone, but must have money to buy the necessities of life, and since the time the silver mines were forced to close down the people of this town have been totally unable to support a preacher.

The people of the State of Nevada are pulling together lustily to make a proper exhibit at the Winter Fair. They will show that their resources are enormous. The State was well advertised at Chicago through the efforts of J. A. Yerington, a go-ahead Carson boy who has sap and vim enough to endow an orphan asylum. The citizens of Reno recognized this by giving him a royal reception on his return from the East.—Lundy Index.

The People's party was organized July 4, 1892, and is now only sixteen months old. Four months after its birth it polled 1,122,045 votes, carried six states, divided the electoral vote in three other states, electing five United States senators, twelve congressmen, and organized itself in forty four states. It has lost none of the ground it won last year and in the recent elections was the only party which increased its voting strength. Does this look as though the People's party had passed out of politics?—Denver News.

Midwinter Fair Funds.

Today Justice Archer is circulating a petition to the board of county commissioners asking them to appropriate $500 to the state agricultural society to assist in defraying the expense of a Nevada exhibit at the Midwinter fair. The state agricultural society is raising funds for this purpose with the understanding that the money will be refunded in case the next legislature makes an appropriation to that end. The petition should be generally signed, as $500 could not be better placed than in assisting Nevada's resources to the attention of visitors at the fair. Let us show them, Easterners in particular, that we have a state of which we are proud, and one in which we have the utmost confidence.

The commissioners will meet tomorrow to take action on the petition.—Silver State.

Nevada to Have a State Building.

An Associated Press dispatch says: J. A. Yerington, General Manager of the Nevada exhibit at the Midwinter Exposition, has arrived in San Francisco for the purpose of arranging for the erection of Nevada's building. Nevada expects to expend $10,000 on her exhibit. The building will be located in what is known as the "Mutton Leg," north of Stow Lake and under the shadow of Strawberry Hill, adjoining the Forty-niners' camp. The mining camp and Nevada building will be on one of the main thoroughfares.

FOOTE IN THE PENITENTIARY.

He Visits the Convicts and Takes His Fiddler.

Yesterday Mr. Foote and the ladies of his company were tendered conveyances by Doc Benton to pay a visit to the State Prison.

It is not customary to allow any recreation for the convicts except on Sunday, but Mr. Foote could not be there on Sunday and so the time from 12 to 1:30 was allowed them to enjoy Mr. Foote's performance.

A platform was erected in the dining room and the performance opened by Mr. Ferguson, the violinist, who gave them a number of his extraordinary specialties on the instrument.

He was roundly applauded for his peculiar imitations, but when he played "Home Sweet Home" with the vocal tone of an organ accompaniment, there was a strange silence and no applause, for every man's heart seemed too full to make any demonstration.

Mr. Foote followed in one of his characteristic speeches which gave great satisfaction to the audience and drew forth frequent interruptions of applause. He closed with his favorite recitation of "The Vagabonds."

The prisoners hold Foote in great favor, for wherever he goes he has always made it a practice to give free performances to the inmates of prisons. He gave them a performance when in Carson before, and as soon as they heard of his coming they began to look forward with the keenest anticipation for his appearance.

As soon as he entered the dining hall there was a round of applause and Edward Kendrick, advancing to him, handed him a beautiful iron-rod walking stick, with the following letter:

Mr. Richard Foote: DEAR SIR:—Please accept from me, as a token of our regards and appreciation of your great kindness to us, this cane, the heartfelt thanks and a God bless you from all here. That your future may be prosperous and full of sunshine is the prayer of your humble and sincere friend.

EDWARD S. KENDRICK.

After leaving the prison the party went to the State Orphans' Home and there gave an entertainment for the children which was very thoroughly enjoyed by them. Superintendent Grimmon desires to publicly thank them for their kindness.

A Sale Off.

George Hankins will not have Yo Tambien in his string next season. A telegram has been received from Hankins, who is at Memphis, announcing that the deal is off as the mare is unsound. Chris Smith and Leo Mayer, who have a bill of sale for the mare, were surprised to hear that an examination of Yo Tambien had developed this fact. When she left Chicago she was apparently as sound as the day she was foaled, and a letter received as late as Friday from Trainer Marion said nothing of any ailment.

Hankins' brief telegram said nothing of what the trouble was. It was supposed he was looking forward to her as a matron in his stud more than anything else.

Tambien was raised by Theo. Winters and no one ever before credited the animal with unsoundness.

Dropped Dead.

Warren, O., December 7.—Late Tuesday night two men, named Saunders and Mason, employed in the Andrew Hitchcock mill at Hubbard, dropped dead, the result of inhaling gas from a blast furnace.

COAST NEWS.

So far nothing of a new or sensational character has been developed in the trial of the bandit, Chris Evans.

At Sacramento Tuesday at the close of court, Judge Prewett commanded the jurors in the Jeffers murder case not to read the newspapers' reports of the trial from that time on.

Joseph Moll, a native of Switzerland, aged fifty years, living on his ranch in the hills two miles south of St. Helena, placed the muzzle of a shotgun in his mouth and discharged the gun with his foot, blowing the entire top of his head off. He was well-to-do.

A woman of Spokane, Wash., was fined $20 a few days ago for practical joking. She perpetrated the exceedingly humorous though not exactly new joke of mixing the sugar and salt on the table of a public dining-room. The Court called it disorderly conduct.

The Detrick Steamship Company, which proposes running the new whaleback steamer Everett between Puget Sound and San Francisco, announces that it has closed a contract with the American Steel Barge Company for two more whalebacks to run between Portland and San Francisco.

Professor Barnard of the Lick Observatory failed to convince the beach resident at Tacoma, that Professor Plummer's prediction about great tides just before Christmas isn't going to prove true. The superstitious beach-campers all along the waterfront in Old Tacoma are raising their backs. They are looking forward to a 25-foot tide.

The Hunchback.

A large audience assembled at the Opera House last evening to witness Mr. Foote's farewell performance. The Hunchback is a strongly constructed play with a splendid plot and full of highly dramatic situations. It is one of Foote's favorite plays and he makes the most of the opportunities given.

Miss Plunket's role in this play gives her a better opportunity of displaying her excellent dramatic abilities than in Don Caesar and the last scene was very fine.

Prof. Ferguson again captivated the audience with his violin specialties, representing a multiplicity of effects that were strikingly interesting.

His violin becomes an organ, a banjo, bagpipes, sawmill and a pig under a gate, at his will.

The Influenza.

London, December 7.—The influenza is increasing in this city. Seventy-four deaths during the past week have been attributed to the disease.

Viscount Strathallan, heir presumptive to the Earl of and Scotch titles of Perth of Melfort, died last night from influenza.

John Morley, who is suffering from influenza, left London this morning for Monte Carlo, where he will sojourn for some time.

One of the Results.

An exchange remarks that the indications point to a great season of activity and enterprise in Nevada next year as the inquiry for lands and openings for investments are more numerous than they have been for the last ten years.

This is one of the results of the advertising Nevada received at Chicago.
